Day 1 & 2

Khwai Concession

Khwai Concession Area is a protected region located in Botswana, primarily within the northern part of the country. It is part of the broader Moremi Game Reserve situated in the Okavango Delta, one of Africa's most spectacular and diverse ecosystems.

Khwai is well vested by the following features:

1. Location : Khwai Concession borders the Moremi Game Reserve and lies along the Khwai River, which is a vital water source for wildlife in the area.
2. Wildlife : The area is renowned for its rich biodiversity, including large populations of elephants, lions, leopards, buffalo, cheetahs, and wild dogs. It also hosts numerous bird species, making it a paradise for birdwatchers.
3. Activities : Visitors can enjoy game drives, guided walks, bird watching, and often, cultural experiences with local communities.
4. Conservation : The Concession area is a community-conserved area, meaning local communities have a significant role in its management and preservation, promoting sustainable tourism and wildlife conservation.
5. Accessibility : It can be reached via itineraries that include air travel to nearby airports followed by overland travel by vehicle.

Activities Day 3

Early Morning

- In Moremi Game Reserve, your early morning game drive gets you close to the wildlife when they're most active, and the landscapes are at their most beautiful sightings. Morning wake up call then breakfast before we can head out for a morning activity. Our drive takes 5-6hrs morning drive before we can head back to camp for brunch then siesta time till 1530hrs when we will be having a high tea before afternoon activity. We then be back to camp around 1800hrs.
- You'll be heading down more safari trails in search of animals in Moremi Game Reserve when we take you on a guided game drive. This is the best thing about many safaris, and you'll hopefully see many animals.
