Day 1

Shokomokwa Camping Resort

Our camp is located in one of the Okavango Delta's main streams. We are ready to serve your trip with ensuite tented camping, and you are free to choose from one of our resort's designated camping grounds. Why bother about your comfy sleep while we are here?

We are 50kms northern side of Maun and serve as the gateway to the Moremi Game Reserve. We provide tented accommodations and camping areas with hygienic facilities. Nestled within the UNESCO World Heritage site of the Okavango Delta, this resort boasts luxurious tented camps, well-maintained camping grounds with comfortable ablutions, and a diverse array of safari activities such as game drives, bushwalks, and traditional mokoro canoe rides. With its emphasis on eco-tourism and sustainable practices, Moremi Enclave Resort offers guests the opportunity to fully immerse themselves in the natural wonders of Botswana while enjoying comfortable accommodations and unforgettable experiences. Give us a yell and we will act appropriately

Tips for Visitors;

- Bring binoculars, camera gear, and sun protection.
- Follow park regulations to ensure safety and conservation.
- Respect wildlife and maintain a safe distance.

Conservation & Community;

- The camp supports community-based conservation efforts, involving local people in tourism benefits and habitat preservation. 5% of our profits is shared with the community around us. We promote human animal non conflict resolution and it's habitual to the community to preserve and protect the environment for their benefit, all this came as learned lesson from us. We are grateful that the community do co exist with animals and adapted as ecosystem.
